

Vigil supporters were dismayed at President Zuma's comments on the deadlock in Zimbabwe and agreed to revive our petition to the international football federation to move the soccer World Cup from South Africa

The petition had been signed by thousands of passers-by before we suspended it when we believed Zuma was prepared to take action to enforce the South African-negotiated Global Political Agreement. We decided to 'unpark' the petition now in light of Zuma's cynical suggestion that the MDC should simply accept that Mugabe would not implement the agreement he signed 16 months ago. Zuma said the MDC should 'park' the issues in contention.

Vigil supporters wonder how you can 'park' issues like law and order (Tomano) and institutionalised corruption (Gono). Why is the MDC, which won the 2008 elections, always expected to make concessions? Why doesn't Zuma suggest that Mugabe 'park' his greed and monomania and do what he promised? In other words, how can there be free and fair elections if Mugabe flouts the spirit of the GPA, flawed as it is?

The Vigil believes that, by not addressing the human rights issues in Zimbabwe, Zuma is putting the whole region in danger. He needs to take another shower.

The tragic violence accompanying the Africa Cup of Nations in Angola should be a warning to FIFA that the World Cup teams and their supporters could be at risk in

South Africa

, especially with the renewed xenophobic assaults there on Zimbabwean refugees who continue to head south for help.

Other points

· A quick survey revealed that none of us has been recalled to Zimbabwe to join the donor-funded constitutional consultation gravy train. It appears that one official has urgently recalled 5 of his children from to take part in the US$70 per day exercise.

· Zimbabwe is continuing to keep bad company. A leading article in the Times on 14th January compared Haiti after the earthquake to Zimbabwe

Z

: 'What was once regarded as the jewel of the French Empire now more closely resembles Robert Mugabe's

Zimbabwe

'. Another depressing comment on the reputation of

Zimbabwe

came from the head of

Somalia

's central bank who warned that his country could 'descend into another

Zimbabwe

if plans to print money went ahead'.

· There was an interview with the Vigil on SW Radio about our petition to the British parliamentary committee discussing aid to Zimbabwe, check: <http://www.swradioafrica.com/news110110/ukurged110110.htm> and newsreel broadcast on Monday, 11th January.

· After last week's snow we were amazingly lucky today. It rained steadily in London till we gathered at

2 pm

and was basically dry throughout our whole Vigil.

· Great to have the front desk stewards back again – Gladys Mapanda, Josephine Zhuga, Sue Toft and June Pedzeni. Also thanks to Godfrey Madzunga who was there at the start to help set up the Vigil and man the back table.
