

A special hymn-singing and prayer Vigil is to be held outside the Zimbabwe Embassy from 12.30 – 2 pm on Easter Sunday in solidarity with Anglican worshippers in Harare locked out of St Mary's Cathedral because of the power struggle involving former Bishop Kunonga, a Mugabe crony and farm beneficiary.

The special Vigil is being supported by London's Southwark Cathedral, which has a long-standing relationship with the Anglican Church in Zimbabwe

, St Martin-in-the-Fields, which is our local church, and the United Society for the Propagation of the Gospel.

The Vigil will be attended by Bishop Michael Doe who has recently returned from Zimbabwe. He will speak (at ) about his experiences 'celebrating the Eucharist in a ditch'.

1 pm

Vigil management team member Sue Toft hosted the interim Harare Bishop Sebastian Bakare when he visited the UK two years ago. Sue was interviewed by Zimbabwe Broadcasting Network News and drew attention to Bishop Sebastian's recent appeal for Christian solidarity in Zimbabwe

. The Bishop said he had approached other churches to use their buildings only to 'realise that our brother and sisterhood does not go beyond our denominational boundaries'.

Other points

- It poured down with rain on the last of our winter Vigils. Now that British summertime is in force the evenings will be much lighter – though we are puzzled that winter seems to have stayed so long.

- Vigil supporters were not surprised by the desperate kicking of the Zanu-PF donkey against President Zuma's current facilitation attempt. It is the moment of truth for South Africa

They will have to force Mugabe to comply with the GPA.

- Notable milestone today was the sale of the 1,000th of our hessian bags labelled

'Working for a new Zimbabwe – w

'. All profits from the sale of these bags have gone to help our work. Thanks to Caroline Witts who has brought them all the way from

Exeter

Devon

(170 miles from

London

) for the last 2 years.

· We note that our Swazi friends have stirred up things in Mbabane. The Minister of Foreign Affairs Lutfo Dlamini apparently said the demonstrators at the Swazi Vigil in

London

had never even been to

Swaziland

Well how well informed he must be! The minister said the demonstrators were being organised by 'a faction calling themselves' ACTSA. This is Action for Southern Africa which succeeded the Anti-Apartheid Movement! The Minister was responding to a question by the Matsanjeni South MP Oedusizi Ndlovu who said he feared being manhandled by angry demonstrators in London who were saying 'a lot of bad things about the country'. According to this report the Minister said that the demonstrators in are 'not even British or Swazi but a hired group from an African country who are paid to speak bad things about this country.' He reassured everyone 'we are working on the issue and have a plan in place....'
